This week County Treasurer Williamson has been the busiest man in Beaver county. Taxpayers are either calling in person or seading in their taxes from all over the county. Quite a number are paying all of their taxes but the most of them are paying only one-half. Some are paying one-half under protest hoping to get the last half reduced by a revision of the action of the Perritorial Board.

Bob Clark of Cleveland township, accompanied by his wife, visited the county seat this week. His business was paying taxes for himself and about twenty of his neighbors. Bob is a kicker on high taxes, and if any one and receive it one year free. thinks he does not know where and when to kick, they should meet him.
